VOLUME VI.

GREAT BEND, KANSAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1889.

NUMBER 10.

THE WORLD AT LARGE.

Summary of the Daily News

WASHINGTON NOTES. A CABLEGRAN has been received at the Argentine legation in Washington stating that a treaty has been signed by the Governments of Bolivia and the Argentine Republic, by which the differences be-tween the two countries in regard to the boundary line between them had been satisfactorily adjusted. Several times during the rest few years war was imduring the past few years war was im-minent between these two South American republics over the boundary line dispute.

Among the early callers on the President on the 28th were Senators Plumb and Manderson and Congressmen Kinsey, of Missouri, and Anderson, of Kansas, Later the President gave a special reception to the members of the Swedenborgian con-

A SECRET meeting of about eighty representative Republicans from all sections of Virginia who are opposed to General Mahone controlling the Federal patronage of the State was held at the Ebbitt House, Washington, the other night, and discussed at length the situation. SECRETARES WINDOM and Noble both left Washington on the 29th—the former for New York and the latter for Philadel-

JOHN B. COTTON, of Lewiston, Me., appointed Assistant Attorney-General, will bave charge of all Government business before the Court of Claims. THE President has appointed Orlow W.

Chapman, of Binghampton, N. Y., Solic-REPORTS to the General Land-office twenty-six town sites entered in

THE widow of General Sheridan, who has been ill in Washington recently, is reported better. SECRETARY WINDOM has affirmed the decision of the Collector of Customs at New York, assessing duty at the rate of 35c per pound and 35 per cent. ad valorem on recent importations of so-called worsted coatings, suitings, etc., used in the manufacture of men's and boys' clothing.

ADMIRAL GERHARDT, who has returned to Washington from Hayti, reports to the Navy Department that he does not think there is any truth in the rumor of a treaty between France and Legitime, though he thinks it probable that Legitime's representative in Paris has pro posed such a treaty.

THE President's granddaughter, Mary the White House by her grandfather, Rev. Dr. Scott, in the presence of the family and members of the Cabinet.

A COMMISSION has been appointed by Postmaster-General Wanamaker to investigate the condition and needs of the

New York City post-office. THE resignation of F. M. Stockslager, Commissioner of the General Land-office, which was tendered March 5 last, has been accepted by the President, to take

THE President has made the following appointments: George B. Fisher, of Delaware, to be fourth auditor of the treasury; J. N. Patterson, of New Hampshire, to be second auditor of the treasury.

THE EAST.
THE New Rhode Island Legislature convened on the 28th.

counties in Central New York. The dam-

SAMUEL JOHNSON, who murdered John Sharpless, of Delaware County, Pa., and commuted to imprisonment for life. THE coroner's jury at New York investigating the cause of the death of Irving

Bishop rendered a verdict that Bishop died while in a state of coma, and that Drs. Irwin, Ferguson and Hunce acted in good faith in the performance of an Mr. HOOPER, of the Reforme

Church of America, was deposed recently in New York for lying and contumacy. Extenuating circumstances were not ad PULLMAN has entered new suits agains

Wagner Company on the vestibule REV. WILLIAM L. GAGE, who was said to reside at Hartford, Conn., jumped from a fourth story window of the Orthopedic Hospital at Philadelphia the other morning and died a few hours later from his injuries. He came to the hospital for treatment for insomnia. To add to the horrors of the Johnstown calamity numbers of ghouls were a work robbing the dead. To do this they hacked off fingers and ears of women The sight so incensed the citizens that several of them were mercilessly lynched, causing considerable disorder and making it extremely difficult to organize any system of relief for the thousands in distress. Estimates of the terrible calamity run to as high as 4,000 lives lost with $40,000,000 damage. Relief meetings were called in all parts of the THE floods at Mount Carmel, Pa., have caused the suspension of ten large mines, causing 6,000 hands to be thrown out of

A FIRRCE gale raged in the lakes on the night of the 30th the wind reaching a ve-locity of forty miles an hour at Chicago, forty-two at Milwaukee and thirty-eight at Green Bay. Much damage was done to shipping, but no lives were lost.

An organized band of masked men from Marinette, Wis., have raided a not torious pinery dive at Peshtigo, wounded the watchmen, drove out the inmates at the muzzles of guns and burned the premises to the ground.

The Illinois House has passed the Senate bill to restrict the circulation of certain "flash" papers. It makes it un-lawful to sell, lend or give away, or otherwise distribute to any minor any book, magazine, pamphlet or newspaper devoted to the publication of, or principally made up of, criminal news, police reports or accounts of criminal deeds or pictures and stories of deeds of bloodshed, shrewdest forgers in the country, was ar-rested in Chicago recently after a chase all over the United States, lasting over a nd in Dr. Cronin's effects was one signed "The Committee of Seven of the KATE KANE, the Chicago lady attorney, distinguished herself the other day by thrashing a newspaper reporter. She was in Justice Wallace's court room and noticed two reporters conversing. She imagined she heard one of them, Frank Allen, make an insulting remark about her. Firmly grasping her umbrells she wigorously belabored him with it.

THE Chicago Board of Trade shut off quotations to 500 regular correspondents JOHN GRASS, of Standing Rock, the leading chief of the Sioux Nation, and White Swan, principal chief at Cheyenne, were in Pierre the other day. They conversed freely about the Sioux bill, saying that it would be ratified. Only one objection was raised, because the bill did not give the Nation the south bank of the Cheyenne river, but the Indians will sign, as the bill provides for the payment of cash and they want manay man than land want money more than land.

THE Addystone pipe and steel works near Cincinnati have been destroyed by BUFFINGTON'S wheel works near Burlington, lows, were destroyed by fire.

E. W. Voigh's big brewery in Detroit, Mich., has been sold to an English syndicate for $1,000,000, of which $500,000 is in

THE most disastrous frost of the season visited Southwestern Michigan the other night, doing immense damage to early vegetables and small fruits and even corn

NATHAN CORWITH, one of the most widely known citizens of Chicago, died recently. Mr. Corwith had at one time accumulated about $1,500,000 and retired from business. Last July his son, Gurdon Corwith, a metal broker of New York, persuaded his father to embark his means in an effort to corner the lead market, but the attempt failed and Mr. Corwith lost every dollar

THE Southern Inter-State Railway Association completed its work at St. Louis on the 30th and adjourned. The West-ern classification sheet will hereafter govern the Southern Association. MRS. MOLLIE CORWIN, of Shelbyville,

Ind., was recently granted a divorce from her seventh busband. The racehorse Saratoga and its jockey, Enoch Turner, were both killed by an ac-cident at the West Side park, Chicago, re-THERE were eight inches of snow on the ground in North Dakota on the morning of May 31. CHIEF JUSTICE and Mrs. Fuller returned to Chicago on the 30th for the first time since their departure to Washington.

ROSENBAUM & Co., wholesale druggists of Cincinnati, have disappeared. They had been buying on credit and selling for cash for less than cost. SETTLERS near Norden, Keya Paha County, Neb., were arriving at that town recently for protection on account of a great Indian scare. The scare was due THE President's granddaughter, Mary Lodge McKee, was christened recently at Ridge agency of an Indian outbreak there.

A TELEGRAM from Mount Auburn, Iowa gives brief particulars of a Whitecap outrage near there in which a number of persons were fatally injured. The victim was a farmer and his barn was turned down. Being driven out by the flames he defended himself with a pitchfork, wounding several Whitecaps.

McGarigue, the boodler, recently re-

McGarigle. the boodler, recently returned to Chicago and gave himself up, when he was fined $1,000 and costs.

The Federal grand jury at Chicago has indicted Alexander McKay, general freight agent of the Michigan Central road, and others for granting special rates on grain shipments to Councilman & Co., of Chicago, about six months ago.

A SPECIAL from Spring Valley, Ill., says: Governor Fifer has ordered three companies of militia here to protect the men emnies of militia here to protect the men employed by the Spring Valley Coal Com-pany who are working in the middle vein. Advices from Denver state that the counties in Central New York. The damage was especially great in the vineyards and truck farms.

EX-UNITED STATES SENATOR E. H. ROLLINS, of New Hampshire, has had another paralytic stroke and is very low.

ADVICES from Denver state that the Rock Island is on the eve of obtaining control of the Colorado Midland railroad, and will extend it to Ogden, making it a formidable rival not only of the Rio Grande of the Province are said to have caused $500,-000 damage. road but also of the Union Pacific.

> THE SQUTH.
> THOMAS MCGETCHEN, who skipped from Baltimore with $80,000 of the funds of the Baltimore Unlimited Oil Company, has been caught at Tavares, Fla. THE jury to try T. B. McDow for the murder of Editor Dawson, of Charleston, S. C., has been drawn. Friends of the tampered with owing to the great propor-An unknown tramp, who was stealing a ride on an eastbound freight train of the Memphis & Charleston railroad the other night, was set upon and beaten by two negro brakemen and shot by the conductor, Ed Ham. The dead body was ther thrown on the track near luke, Miss., and not discovered until it had been run over by the eastbound passenger train. FIRE in Alexandria, Va., recently destroyed the tannery of C. C. Smoot & Sons, the largest in the South.

The drought in Louisiana and Mississippi has been broken by good rains. A CYCLONE from the west struck Dan-ville, Va., on the 30th and demolished a six-story building. Robert Britt, James Young G. J. Jones, Bud Hooper and D. were subsequently taken out dead. Harry Oak was rescued alive, but died in a few moments. Six others were fatally injured. A TORNADO gathered on the mountain side near Hagerstown, Md., on the 80th and destroyed several cottages and swept up the valley of the Potomac, carrying A CYCLONE swept' through a portion of the valley at Martinsburg, W. Va., on the 3)th. At Falling Waters the barn of John W. Criswell was blown down. The killed were 1. J. E. Powell, a pumpmaker, and J.

away a number of houses, barns and

ROBERT FARRIS was killed and three other men seriously injured by the explo-sion of a planing mill boiler in Craighead

County, Ark., the other day.

The Pecos (Tex.) and Seven rivers United States' mail back was robbed by two masked men recently. How much money was obtained or who the robber Dr. P. S. Moore, who was Surgeon suddenly in Richmond, Va., recently, A TELEGRAM from Nashville, Tenn , an nounces that Neil P. Brown, ex-rending elerk of the last National House of Repreentatives was run over and killed by rain. Mr. Brown was a widely known Democrat and had filled the position of eading clerk at several National Demo

GENERAL.

THE manager and assistant of the Ballynena estates (Ireland) were assassinated ecently in the public road. Ballymena is wenty miles north of Belfast in a strongly Protestant community.

THE Belgian Chamber of Representa-lavor of the ministry. It was recently rumored that the Mexian Congress, in secret session, was discussing the question of ceding Lower California to the United States. It was believed, however, that the rumor was merely a stratagem of the Conservatives.

Ten thousand people have been rendered homeless by a terrible conflagation at Yokato, Japan.

a man named Wilson have been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in Cronin's murder. The police refused to state what the evidence was against them, and even denied they had been arrested. believed, however, that the rumor was merely a stratagem of the Conservatives.

THE London Jockey Club has warned Lord James Douglass off the Newmarket course for detaulting in bets.

A BANQUET in honor of Mr. Ryan, the United States Minister, was given in the City of Mexico on the 30th. Minister Ryan responded to the toast, "The President of the United States." His speech dent of the United States." His speech was vigorously applauded.

The action of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern in reducing freight rates to the basis of 39 cents a hundred pounds from Chicago to St. Paul on traffic originating east of Chicago will be met by all the other St. Paul lines except the Rock Island. In the British House of Commons Sir

James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary to the Home Office, denied the reports from Victoria, British Columbia, that three men-of-war in the Pacific had been ordered to proceed to the Behring sea to pro-tect British sealing vessels from intererence by American men-of-war. DECORATION day was duly observed on the 30th. The occasion was seized upon by politicians, somewhat more than usual, to elaborate their principles. The principal features were visits to Grant's tomb at New York and the Sheridan monument at Washington. In the South, Confederate and Federal graves were decorated alike. President Harrison attended the parade at New York. One hundred arrests have been made at Belgrade in connection with the recent amount of property destroyed by a ter-rific hurricane, which prevailed for four days on the Australian coast.

PRINCE ALOIS SCHWARZENBURG and a Lieutenant of hussars fought a duel near Vienna recently. The former was mortally wounded.

VIZITELLI, the well known bookseller of London, has been sentenced to three THE Rock Island has given notice that twould meet the rates of the Chicago,

Burlington & Northern between Chicago LORD SALISBURY, replying to a deputation in favor of a bi-metallic standard of currency, said he did not think a parliamentary decree would settle the question but the opinion of the people, founded on business interests, must decide it. He hoped that the coming congress at Paris would be really an international one. The final decision would depend on how far the nations would do-operate.

FOLLOWING is the April report of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, including all lines controlled by that corporation: Gross earnings, $2.513,759.64, an increase of $392,418.78 over those of the corresponding period last year; expenses, $1,691,223, a decrease of $295,312.47; net earnings, $822,536.64, an increase of $687,- 739, 25, DISASTROUS floods were reported in Eastern cities on the 2d, due to the heavy rains. The Potomac overflowed at Washington. At Elmira, N. Y., and vicinity the damage amounted to $500,000, thirteen lives being reported lost at Corning. Much damage was also done at Andover and Wellsville, N. Y. Several bridges at Hornellsville were swept away. At Petersburg, Va., there was a great flood with damages at $100,000. At Harper's Ferry eight lives were lost, and eleven drownings were reported in Maryland. CLEARING house returns for the week ended June 1 showed an average increase of 22 6 compared with the corresponding week of last year. In New York the in-

THE Southern Pacific railroad has given notice of withdrawal from the Transcontinental Association. This step, following similar action by the Northern Pacific and the resignation of Chairman Leeds, is quite generally accepted as meaning the virtual disruption of the association Canadian Pacific and the restrictions of the Inter-State law which the foreign roa escaped are the causes assigned for the Springfield, Neb., June 2.-The vigi-antes who recently inaugurated a reign of terror in Keya-Paha County, on the orthern frontier of the State, by putting out of the way men charged with cattle stealing, have broken out again. John T. Newell, a farmer living nineteen miles northeast of here, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning with twenty-four bullet holes in his body. He lived alone. There is no clew to the identity of his assassins, but there is little doubt that he was killed by the vigilantes, as he was very outspoker against them, and was charged with har boring "rustlers," as the cattle thieves are called. Another farmer named George Babcock, living in the same locality, was surprised at the house of his brother-in law at three o'clock in the morning by body of masked men, who carried hir away. He is supposed to have shared the fate of Newell. The anti-vigilance people among the settlers are arming, and it is probable that there will be more blood-

CHICAGO, June 2 .- J. E. Fritzpatrick o the central police detail, received the fol-lowing dispatch from his brother Peter, borough, across the river from Johnstown: "Rose, her husband and child, and my wife and three children were all drowned. Some of children were all drowned. Some Bob's children were also drowned." T persons referred to in the message are Rose Brady, Captain Fitzpatrick's sister: James Brady, her husband; Eilen Brady her daughter; Mary Fitzpatrick and he three children, two boys and one girl, "Bob" refers to another brother living here, who had nine children.

HASTINGS, Neb., June 2 - David Crinka low, alias Kid Hawkins, the gambler charged with killing Frank Fausier, also aloon in this city, was acquitted of murder in the district court. Upon his acquittal authorities from Kansas City recrested the kid for a murder committed in that city some time ago.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 3.-The ending into the city are greatly damaged The bridges are gone. Many trains for the north are detained and the city is full of strangers. The first train since Thurs. day came through on the Chesapeake & HILLSBORO, Va., June 2-The storm this part of the country has been very de-structive. The damage can not be estimated. Hillsboro has suffered severely from loss of houses, stock, barns, fences CHICAGO, June 2.—Thomas Murphy an

KANSAS STATE NEWS.

HANNER MATTHEWS was run over and killed by a Santa Fe stock train at Burr-ton early the other morning. A vicious bull on the farm of Ira Spangler, six miles north of Newton, nearly killed two people and badly injured another early the other morning. Spangler was at work when the bull made an attack on him, knocking him down and crushing him terribly. His father, hearing him shouting, ran out to his assistance ing him shouting, ran out to his essistance and he, too, was knocked down and trampled upon by the infuriated beast. Abel Genet, the hired san, then attempted to save the Spanglers, but he was so injured that he could render no assistance. Mrs. Spangler, seeing the dangerous position of her husband and son, bravely seized a heavy club and the brute was finally driven of. Young Spagler was terally driven off. Young Spagler was ter-ribly injured and could hardly recover. The plucky woman escaped without in-years of age and richly dressed. She had arrived in the city, as an investigation showed, a few days previous and refused to register at the hotel at which she stopped, but said that she was Mrs. Rhine-hart, of Cincinnati It was stated that imprisonment for publishing Rhinehart was not the weman's name, but that she comes of a prominent Illinois family and that the two men had been hired to put her out of the way.

PHIL LACEY, aged twenty-one years, fatally shot himself in the head while playing with a revolver at Atchison the WHILE the people of Dacey, a small town south of Ellsworth, on the St. Louis & San Francisco railread, were preparing to observe Decoration Day they were startled by the announcement that William Strong had killed his wife, and then going to the house of a neighbor killed him and his wife. The names of the mur-

credit to the report that Hillman has beer | piled in a space five feet square.

Pacific and 'Frisco roads should construct connecting tracks at Arkansas City is order that all the roads might have access to the mills now solely reached by the GEORGE NEWCOMB, once a prominent pawn broker of Wichita, committed sui-cide the other afternoon in the bank build-ing at Clearwater. He had recently los $25,000 by unfortunate investments and brooded heavily over his trouble, and it is supposed that this was the reason for his act. He leaves a widow and two children He was at one time superintendent and treasurer of the Youngstown & Paines ville road in Ohio and was very wealthy, but lost most of his wealth through specuthrough Chase County in the vicinity or down and a great amount of property de-stroyed. The residence of Milton Brown was wrecked. Mr. Brown was killed, his wife fatally and his son, daughter and babe severely injured.

It is stated that requisition papers will not be issued for the return of Hillman from Arizona until his identity has been established. If the man arrested is prover to be Hillman by evidence sufficient to command the reward the insurance com-panies will pay the reward offered for and of the murder of Walters. If the detectives fail to prove their case, the companies will, it is believed, let the case ISAAC PARKS, a farmer and an old resident and justice of the peace of Washing-ton County, was killed at a side track and cattle chute called Spencerville on the St Joseph & Grand Island railroad, the other EUGENE WARE, of Fort Scott, read ar original poem on the recent occasion of decorating the graves of the soldiers as Arlington Heights National cemetery, near Washington, D. C.

R. L. WALKER, United States marshal. has appointed Captain H. D. Guthrie, his chief deputy for the Indian Territory. Captain Baker will have general supervision of all deputy marshals in the Territory.

EVERY city, village and hamlet in Kansas honored the memory of the Nation's dead defenders on Decoration Day by strewing flowers upon their graves. In many places the ceremonies were of more than u-ual interest. L. J. PERRY, a "formerly of Kansas" newspaper man, is an applicant for the ap-pointment as one of the board to publish the war records. THE ten-year-old son of Sylvester Gifford fell into the river at Atchison the other day and was drowned. RETURNS from the eleven counties com-prising the Fourth Congressional district howed that General Harrison Kelley was elected to Congress by a majority of about 8,000. The total opposition vote was only ta livery stable, was perhaps beaten fa-tally the other night by a man named Snodgrass that he had but recently dis-

JOHNSTOWN'S WOE.

Over Four Thousand Lives Lost in the Disaster.

Lost Awful Scenes-The Holocaust at the Bridge-Some Alive in the Ruins-The Woeful Damage

PITTSBURGE, Pa., June 3.—The scene at Johnstown beggars description. Thousands of sightseers and anxious friends are gathered about the devastated city and hundreds of wreckers are busily at work removing debris and assisting the Five bundred men were at work on the railroad track and at eight o'clock yester-day morning the first train passed over the road from Sang Hollow to Johnstown. ANOLD BUCKMAN, a Clay Center jeweler, while attempting to solder the nozzle on a glycerine can the other afternoon was burned quite severely about the throat and neck from the igniting of the gas in the can.

THE story comes from Wichita that the other evening an unknown woman, while walking in the most arisotcratic part of that city, was bound and gagged by two manned by the Americus Club boysthat city, was bound and gagged by two manned by the Americus Club boysmen who drove rapidly up behind her and Captain A. J. Logan was in charge and carried her away in a covered carriage. was ably assisted by Jack Little, chief of Her cries attracted the attention of two bakers, but before they could reach her the men were out of sight around a corner. The woman was about twenty-five children. "God bless you," was enough to touch the heart of hardened cynics.

Adjutant-General Hastings has established headquarters in the city and has proceeded to deputize as many citizens as possible. The police were organized on the other side of the river and by ten o'clock the whole locality was fairly well patrolled. At two o'clock yesterday afternoon another squad of police came up from Pittsburgh, so that at present the plunderers have a hard time making any progress. It is still impossible to give any accurate idea of the number of dead and no one places an estimate lower than 4,000, and reliable information tends to show that it will reach twice that. Relief committees are well settled and are doing big work. The press relief committee and that of the Free Masonic order, which was first on going to the house of a neighbor killed him and his wife. The names of the murdered neighbors were not learned. Strong then fied and a strong posse was in pursuit, but he was heavily armed and defied arrest. He was thought to be insane.

S. M. Royway, but a police council. The amount of clothing and pro-S. M. ROCHELLE, late a police commissioner at Wichita, was arrested the other day upon the charge of obtaining money in a felonious manner. It is charged that he induced Mrs. Klaus to sign a note for $700, telling her that it related to a piece of property upon which she held a mortgage. After obtaining her signature he sold the note and the first that she knew of it was when she received notice that a payment must be made. He asserted his innocence and gave bail to appear for trial. across it.

JAMES MARTIN, father of ex-Governor John A. Martin, died Atchison on the night of the 28th at the advanced age of eighty-seven years.

The Concordia land district has beer
The Concordia land district has beer consolidated with that of Salina, with its never be made. You can not turn up a office at Salina.

Contracts for new army buildings at Fort Riley to cost $86,000 were let recently.

Luther Montgomen, a bridge repairer fell from the structure over the Neosh river near Emporia the other night, and houses that are still burning. Blackened There are at least 4,000 bodies in the 2,000 way, valencia and Bavaria were in the partment commanders to see that the following day.

The people of Lawrence give but little the following the follow SAW ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY DROWNED.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 3.—A baggage-man of the Pennsylvania railroad gives a graphic account of the disaster. His train had been stopped at New Florence, and while standing in his car door he say in less than twenty minutes. There was river, at this point, and as the people came to it they went down. The Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad are carrying supplies free of charge and are doing every thing possible to relieve PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 3. ohnstown bridge where drift is burning has not been extinguished. The skulls of six people can be seen sticking up out o the ruins above the bridge. Nothing bu blackened skulls can be seen buried in the debris. There are supposed to be several hundred bodies there. The whole thing the American Club, who has just returned here from Johnstown, states that ther are still many people in the wrecked houses, and among the debris at the bridge who are still alive. One man was late last night. The idea that some of th unfortunate people who are impris tense excitement, more especially as it was intended and preparations had been made to blow up the bridge with dynamite. The fire engines have just reached the scene and begun to pour streams of water upon the burning mass. Grave fears are now entertained that un it will produce an epidemic, as it is sup posed to contain a thousand bodies as well as a large number of horses, cattle and JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 3.—The financial losses by the great flood will be $49,000,000. This is the conservative estimate made yesterday by a body of business men, and it is not one dollar too high. As the water recedes the great loss can be more clearly seen. Of this amount the Cambria Iron Company will lose at least $1,590,000. Their great iron plant is almost a total wreck. One mill has been completely swept away, and the machinery in the others has been either ruined or carried away. The woodwork alone of $1,000,000 was burned last night. It is now estimated from a careful survey dwellings were carried away. A Much-Wanted Kid.

HASTINGS, Neb., June 2 — David Crinka-low, alias Kid Hawkins, the gambler charged with killing Frank Fausler, also a gambler, last November at the Southern saloon in this city, was acquitted of mur-der in the district court. Upon his acquittal authorities from Kansas City re-arrested the kid for a murder committed in that city some time ago.

THE LATE CYCLONE.

Further Particulars of the Eansas Tornado

—Extent of the Damage.

EMPORIA, Kan., May 30.—The cyclone which visited Chase County Tuesday, twenty-three miles west of this city, was twenty-three miles west of this city, was terribly destructive of property and one life was lost with shoots a certainty of another, and about a dozen were more or less injured. Latest reports from the scene state that not a house nor fence of any kind has been left standing for nearly four miles in the track of the cyclone and only bare trunks or stumps of trees. The point of most damage was near the Santa Fe railroad track, about two The point of most damage was near the Santa Fe railroad track, about two miles west of a small town named Clements, on the farm of Milton Brown, whose house was razed to the foundation and he himself almost instantly killed. His wife was fatally injured and his oldest son, Edward, had his fuence and power can effect it. even if we leg broken. His daughter, Sarah, was jured and his oldest son, Edward, had his leg broken. His daughter, Sarah, was badly hurt internally and one of her legs was broken, and his little baby's head bruised almost out of shape. A portion of the house roof feil on and crushed Mr. Brown's head almost flat and be lived but a few minutes. The residence of Spencer Pickard was totally destroyed to the foundation. S. D. Haston lost all his bestives, barns, outhouses and had his festidence badly damaged. The residence of B. M. Chappell was lifted and blown fifteen leet off its foundation and dropped on the ground a total wreck. Job Johnson lost his windmill, orchard, residence, outhouses, barns, etc., and himself and daughter were injured, the latter so badly as to be mable to be about. William Dawson was also hurt in the wreck of Johnson's house. At least fifteen or twenty other farmers out residences or crops or both and there At least fifteen or twenty other farmers out residences or crops or both and there is no estimating the monetary loss to those visited by the wild winds. Some wonderful escapes from death are chroncled, among them that of the family of Mill Hunt who took refuge in their cellar and escaped without a scratch to any of them, although the house was blown to fragments from over the heads. Another and escaped without a scratch to any of them, although the house was blown to fragments from over the heads. Another family named Hoff escaped by flying to the cellar of Mr. Brown, who himself was the cellar of Mr. Brown, who himself was in which he distinguished himself in contra killed. Many peculiarities of the storm were noted. Among them was the snapping off of a huge elm tree by the wind, while not ten feet away was a very small soft maple with seemingly not a leaf missing. At one place the fence posts for a long distance were stripped of their wire, it hav-ing seemingly been blown away, and in other places the posts themselves were gone and the wire lay around loose. The storm took with slight deviations an al-

farmer nearly fifty years age, and served during the war in the Ninety-first Ohio infantry, and was mustered out as tain of a company in that regiment.

brought here. The crews were perched on cabin tops for twenty-four hours, without food and with the waves ment consists of a short dark blue sack washing over them, and the sand the island, sixty miles from here, and the crew were: Captain John Marshall, wife and three children, of Kingston; First and three children, of Kingston; First ing in acorns. This is, of course, not intended to interfere with departments which have adopted a different uniform. Pittsburg; Archy Borley and Elias Borley. St. Paul's bay, all seamen and single, and

ASIATIC CALAMITIES.

Serious Conflagration in Japan-Earth-quake-Etc.

San Francisco, May 30.—A Pacific mail steamer which arrived yesterday brought startling news from China and were destroyed by fire on the 3d inst The fire originated in the residence of the sufferers. About 10,000 people were rendered homeless. endered homeless. On Oshima island an eruption took place

April 13 and destroyed more than half the nouses on the island. Another peculiar disease has broken out n Tukadagun, the victims dying five hours after being attacked.

A series of earthquakes was followed by the opening of the ground a thousand feet long by three wide.

for the time being, owing to the ex-citement and lack of adequate help. Frank E. Irich was the first rescued and will die, his chest being crushed entirely in. Jacob Kurtz, of Norton Center, was crushed fatally. Milton Boerstier, a son of the owner of the barn, received fatal injuries. Joseph Bauer, his son William and brother Charles were terribly gashed and bruised and a dozen more were more or less injured. The wives of the me were in the house preparing a dinner for the occasion and some of them were com-pletely prostrated by the calamity. The Pacific Mail's Annual.

New York, May 31 .- The Pacific Mail ckholders held their annual meeting at the company's office in this city and re-elected the old directors. The annual in the year ended April 3, 1883, $4,161,057, an increase of $82,519 over the earnings of the preceding year. The expenses of operating were $3,966,160, dn increase of Two More Arrests.

Chicago, June 2.—Thomas Murphy and a man named Wilson have been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in Cronin's murder. The police refused to state what the evidence was against them, and even denied they had been arrested, STIRRED UP A HORNETS' NEST. Congressmen-Elect Kelley, of Kausse, cites the Ire of the People of elect Harrison Kelley, of Kansas, de-livered a short address at the close of the

with Mr. Kelley.

THE G. A. R.

New Appointments Made—The Indian Territory—The National Encampment— The Uniform. KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 30.-Cor er-in-Chief Warner, of the G. A. R., has prepared general order No. 9, which will be issued June 1. The following appeintgone and the wire lay around loose. The storm took with slight deviations an almost due east course and barely passed the town of Clements by possibly half a mile. Had it struck the town the loss of life and property would have been fearful to contemplate. Mr. Brown, who was killed, was formerly from Rush County, Ohio, and has relatives here. He also has relatives named Stevenson, who reside at Burlington, Kan. He was a well-to-do game of the National pension committee, vice killed, was formerly from Rush County, John M. Palmer, withdrawn. Comrade relatives named Stevenson, who reside at Burlington, Kan. He was a well-to-do wardleigh, resigned. The order contains farmer nearly fifty years age, and served a list of aides de camp appointed. Allen J. Showers, of St. Louis; Thomas J. Delamere, of St. Louis; O. P. Smith, of LAKE DISASTER.

Destructive Gale on Lake Ontario—A Vessel Goes Ashore.

Kingston. Ont., May 3).—The worst disaster that has occurred on Lake Ontaria in many years took place Tuesday. The steam barge, D. D. Calvin, of Kingston. With a tow of schooners with timber from St. Ignace, was struck by a gale off Long Point. The tow line parted and the Norway, Valencia and Bavaria were in the trough of the sea. The two former manufactures of St. Louis; O. P. Smith, of Kansas City; James M. Thompson, of Kansas City. Among other announcements are the following: The Indian Territory is divided between the departments of Kansas and Texas, the Canadian river being the dividing line. The Commander assures all comrades a royal welcome and ample accommodations at the Milwaukee National encampment, and requests the department commanders to see that the comrades of their respective depart-

al Address at the De

Bensational Address at the Decoration Day Exercises.

Baltimone, Md., June L.—General Cyrus Bussey, First Assistant Secretary of the Interior Department, created a sensation Thursday night by a reference to the South in his speech at Ford's Opera House where memorial exercises were held by the G. A. R. He said it was proper for rought startling news from China and fapan.

A thousand houses in Yokato, Japan, were destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. The fire originated in the residence quarter about ten o'clock at night and burned for sixteen hours. Many lives were lost. The Emperor subscribed over 15,000 out of his own purse for the relief of the sufferers. About 10,000 people were rendered homeless. other day which represented that men slept there who died in the consciousness of the righteousness and justice of the Confederate side. He asserted that there were thousands of men who were at heart loyal to the Union, but were forced into a service with which they had no sym-

South in a political sense at the close of the war; and at the present time the South was again going to be reconstructed under the guidance of Northern men—this time in its industrial development. But, he concluded, the South will only have been thoroughly reconstructed when the Fatal Barn Raising.

Akron, O., May 30.—At a barn raising on the farm of Jacob Boerstler, at Loyal Oak, seven miles from this city, yesterday while one of the big bents were being elevated into position one of the side posts lipped beyond the protecting bar and the big beam fell with terrible force upon a score of men. The utmost consternation prevalled and the work of rescue retarded for the time being, owing to the arrival of the protecting bar and the posit his ballot and have it counted.

A Prisoner's Suicide.

Pittspikib. Mass., June 1.—George Wagoner, the prisoner at the jall who ook pelson Tuesday night, remained unconscious until morning, when he died. He left a letter to his parents requesting them to make no investigation into his poison. He claimed to be innocent of the crime charged against him and added: "If they take Tom they will have the right one." Sheriff Crosby has instituted a rigid examination. Wagoner was charged with outraging a sixteen-year-old girl.

Five People Struck By Lightning. Coxydox, Ind., June 1.—While Ephrain Kessner was returning from Leavenwerth to his home Wednesday evening, lightning struck his wagon, in which were seated five persons besides himself, instantly ki ling his wife and so severely shocking a lady named Cline that she has become insane. All others were more or less in-

The Coldest May on Re LAWRENCE, Kan, June 1-Prof. Snow, of the State University, reports this as the coldest May weather on his record for twenty years. The rainfall for the month has been 8.27 inches, the heaviest May rains on record